Treasurer (Volunteer Board Director)

Camp Cadicasu Association of Calgary

Camp Cadicasu Association of Calgary is seeking an experienced and community-minded individual to serve as Treasurer on its Board of Directors.

For more than 90 years, Camp Cadicasu has provided transformative outdoor experiences for children and youth. Operating as both a residential summer camp and year-round outdoor education and recreation centre, Camp Cadicasu serves campers aged 7–17, school groups, and community rental organizations. With annual revenues exceeding $1 million, the organization is committed to fostering personal growth, environmental stewardship, physical literacy, and meaningful connections in a safe, inclusive, and supportive environment.

As a member of the Board Executive, the Treasurer plays a key role in supporting the financial stewardship and long-term sustainability of the organization. This volunteer leadership position is ideal for an individual with financial expertise and a passion for helping a mission-driven nonprofit thrive.

The Treasurer serves a three-year term, with the opportunity for renewal through election.

Key Responsibilities

- Provide financial oversight and guidance to the Board of Directors
- Review and present financial statements and reports at Board meetings
- Support the development and monitoring of annual budgets
- Assist the Board in understanding the organization's financial position, risks, and opportunities
- Work with management and the Finance Committee to support sound financial practices and internal controls
- Participate in financial planning and strategic decision-making
- Support the annual audit or financial review process
- Serve as a member of the Executive Committee and Finance Committee

Qualifications and Experience

We are seeking candidates with:

- Professional experience in finance, accounting, banking, business, or a related field
- Strong financial literacy and the ability to interpret financial statements
- Experience with nonprofit organizations, governance, or volunteer leadership is an asset
- A strategic mindset and commitment to responsible stewardship
- Excellent communication and collaboration skills

Professional accounting designations (CPA, CA, CMA, CGA) are welcomed but not required.

What We Hope You Bring

- A commitment to the mission and values of Camp Cadicasu
- Sound judgment and integrity
- Strategic thinking and problem-solving skills
- Connections within the community, business sector, or philanthropic community
- A passion for supporting youth development and outdoor education

Time Commitment

- Attend regular Board meetings (quarterly)
- Participate in Executive and Finance Committee meetings
- Review financial materials in advance of meetings
- Provide occasional support and consultation between meetings as needed

Why Join the Board?

This is an opportunity to use your financial expertise to make a meaningful impact on the lives of children, youth, and families. As Treasurer, you will help ensure Camp Cadicasu remains financially strong and well-positioned to continue delivering exceptional outdoor experiences for generations to come.
